DILG CHAMPIONS. DILG Volleybelles and cheerleaders pose as they bring home honor for the Department.

DILG WINS INTER-AGENCY VOLLEY

For the second time around, the Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG) volleyball team took on the volley crown at the recently concluded Inter-Government Agency Female Employees Sportsfest Volleyball at the Rizal Memorial Sports Complex.

With the powerhouse team of the DILG composed of Leslie Polistico, Elenita Mahinay, Mary Grace Alejandro, Maricor Dayadante, Joy Marie Campomares, Jobie Angot, Aisa Tanada, Rose Ellen Jimeno, Lannie Angulo, Maria Olivine Contreras, Jessica Banzali, Norma Corpuz, Mary Ann Sta. Ana and Mary Grace Acebes, Coach Ney Mateo already anticipated and claimed the title.

The DILG team won over the Department of National Defense with the scores 26-24, 25-20 and 25-19 shining as a back-to-back inter-agency volleyball champion.

"Maganda ang teamwork namin at may game plan kami. Malaki ang naging contribution ng lahat lalo na ng mga kasamahan natin sa BFP," Kristine dela Peña said.

Ms. Hilda Gaurino, Ms. Edna Fresnoza and Ms. Rosemarie Ellen Jimeno who were the Department's sports coordinators were very proud of the team and lauded each of them for bringing home the bacon once again.

Meanwhile, Leslie Polistico won the Most Valuable Player award while Jobie Angot and Mary Ann Sta. Ana won Best Receiver and Best Spiker respectively. The Department also bagged awards in billiards with Cristever Zulueta (2nd Place) and Morceda Ali (3rd Place) and placed second in the cheerdance competition.

Apart from the volleyball competition, the sportsfest also featured badminton, billiards, bowling and table tennis.

The inter-government sportsfest is a Gender and Development project of Philippine Sports Commissioner Akiko Thomson-Guevara joined by female players from the Department of Agrarian Reform (DAR), Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA), DILG, DND, Department of Energy (DOE), Department of Health (DOH), Department of Justice (DOJ), National Bureau of Investigation (NBI), Land Registration Authority (LRA), Philippine Atmospheric, Geophysical and Astronomical Services Administration (PAG-ASA), Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD), Philippines Sports Commission (PSC) and Department of Public Works and Highways (DPWH).

With the awards that the Department brought home, it is a clear fact that we do not only perform well within the confines of our workplace but also excel in the activities outside the office.

Congratulations Team DILG!
