The Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG) is compliant with the Republic Act No. 10173, also known as the Data Privacy Act of 2012, by protecting and securing custody of personal data submitted through our DILG Official Website.

• When do we collect personal information?
  - The DILG collects data through the use of Information System or manual accomplishment of forms/documents you submit comments, complaints, and requests for assistance and/or documents from our Agency.

• What information is collected?
  - The DILG collects the following personal information:
    1. Full Name
    2. Email Address
    3. Contact Number
    4. Address

• Why do we collect personal information?
  - This allows us to provide better service and give you proper response/feedback to your requests.

• How we protect your information?
  - The DILG implements security measures by allowing only authorized access to limited personnel on our systems containing sensitive information. They are also required to keep every data under the custody confidential.
  - You have the following rights under the Data Privacy Act of 2012, pursuant to Rule VIII. Rights of the Data Subjects, Section 34:
    1. Right to be informed.
    2. Right to object
    3. Right to Access
    4. Right to rectification
    5. Right to Erasure or Blocking
    6. Right to damages
- When do we share the information?
  - We only share your information if required by the law, or if necessary, for compliance associated with a non-disclosure agreement to keep and treat all of your information confidential.

- Who to contact?
  - If you have other concerns, you may contact us using the following information:

  FRANCISCO R. CRUZ, CESO III, MMG
  Assistant Secretary for Plans and Programs
  DILG-OSEC Data Protection Officer
  dilg.dpo2024@gmail.com
  Landline No.: 8876-3454 local 3301